

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

United States of America

v.

Criminal No. 06-cr-218-04-JD

Melvin Rosario a/k/a Flaco

O R D E R

Counsel moved to revisit the issue of bail. The new pieces of information offered were that: (1) Espada said he did not intend to share the drug profit with Rosario; (2) Rosario was aware of the drug sale but was not part of it; (3) he is an American citizen from Puerto Rico; and (4) he can live with his sister in Lawrence.

This does not compel me to change my order on detention. Defendant speaks Spanish with a Dominican accent. He and Espada were negotiating with the CI's in each others presence. Rosario is no drug dealing novice. His other Jag was found with 2 kilos of cocaine in it. He also was dealing with the individuals in the garages and built the "hide".

The oral motion is denied.

SO ORDERED.
